

The Leonard D. Schaeffer Center Training Activities Form

Please select which training activity you are applying to:

- Predoctoral Fellowship
Scholars from relevant disciplines such as economics, public policy, health policy, statistics, medicine, and psychology are invited to apply. The fellowship provides a competitive stipend and other benefits. Fellows must be making progress towards completing their Ph.D. in a relevant discipline.
- Postdoctoral Fellowship
Scholars from relevant disciplines such as economics, public policy, health policy, statistics, medicine, and psychology are invited to apply. The fellowship provides a competitive stipend and other benefits. Fellows must have completed a Ph.D. in a relevant discipline.
- Internship
Interns will have opportunities to support ongoing research projects, to assist Schaeffer Center faculty and staff organizing events and using media to effectively communicate research findings. Position is unpaid for students seeking to gain experience in the field.
- Merkin Fellowship
Scholars from relevant disciplines such as economics, public policy, health policy, statistics, medicine, and psychology are invited to apply. Fellows should have a record of and interest in scholarship in the areas of brain-related health economics and policy or neuroscience. Fellowship provides research funding or course buyouts. Fellows must have completed a Ph.D. in a relevant discipline.

Applicant should submit this form, a current CV and a 1-page Letter of Intent (LoI) that includes a description of his/her research, and a list of the names and contact information for three individuals who will serve as references to:

Dr. Julie Zissimopoulos
Director, Schaeffer Center Training Programs
Attention: Briana White
635 Downey Way
LA CA 90089-3333
brianawh@healthpolicy.usc.edu
Subject: Selected Training Activity (ex: Predoctoral Fellowship)

Applicants interested in the Summer Internship should submit a 1 page Letter of Intent. The letter should include School, Year, and how you heard about the program.